

Any time that we relinquish control of something, it is a bad idea. This is a bad idea that allows the broadcaster to dictate what we can or cannot record. If they don't like the rules as they are, then they don't have to play the game. Someone else will surely step in and take their place. This is a bad idea, and I hope that it is defeated.